Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, Year C

A place for us in God's kingdom

The liturgy of Palm Sunday is designed to reflect the dramatic mood swing that accompanies the events of that day when Jesus was triumphantly welcomed into Jerusalem, only to face his rejection and crucifixion a few days later. On one occasion, I experienced the excitement, especially among the children, when a live donkey led the procession into the church.

More difficult is the challenge of helping the congregation adjust to the change of mood as we read the Passion a few minutes later.

This year the Passion is from Saint Luke. Unlike the Passion of Saint John, which we read on Good Friday, the narratives of Matthew, Mark and Luke are very different. John has Jesus in control: indeed, we could almost say triumphant, as he dies on the cross, "accomplishing" all he had been sent by the Father to achieve.

By contrast, in the synoptic gospels there is little to lift the darkness surrounding the events that lead to Calvary. However, in Luke, who was a doctor and throughout his gospel concentrated on Christ's compassion for the sick and the sinner, there are a few unique encounters, which are worth noting. Firstly, we are told that large numbers of people followed Jesus as he carried his cross.

Turning the attention from himself to them, he said: "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep rather for yourselves and for your children." Then, after he had been nailed to the cross, he offers this remarkable prayer to his Father: "Forgive them, they do not know what they are doing." And finally comes the intense exchange with the two criminals who were being executed with him. As one begins to abuse Jesus and challenge him as to whether he is the Christ, the other rebukes him with the reminder that the two of them deserve punishment, at the same time, noting that Jesus had done nothing wrong. Then comes his heartfelt request: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom," and the most wonderful promise in reply: "Today, you will be with me in paradise."

As we enter Holy Week, I suggest that we guard against being overwhelmed by the darkness of the events that surround Christ's Passion or even the darkness we may be experiencing in our own lives and times. Certainly, across the world there is a great deal of tension and anxiety as people view the rise of extremist views along with the dangers of climate change that are beginning to threaten the very existence of our planet. The pope has declared this year a Jubilee Year in which we see ourselves as pilgrims in hope.

Accordingly, I suggest we listen attentively to the Lord, praying to his Father to forgive us, with the promise – also to be found in St John – that he is going to prepare a place for us in his Kingdom, where there will be room for us all!

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

Thursday 17th April — Thursday of the Lord's Supper Friday 18th April — Friday of the Passion of the Lord Saturday 19th April — Holy Saturday

SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION, YEAR C, 2025
ACTS 10:34, 37-43; COLOSSIANS 3:1-4; JOHN 20:1-9

Holy Week is the most sacred time of the year, we will commemorate and remember the last week of Jesus' life on this earth. These are the days leading up to the great Easter Feast.

The Lenten season of sacrifice and self-denial has come to an end. The greatest focus of the week is the Passion (suffering) and Resurrection of Jesus Christ and the events that led up to it.

CHRISM MASS & PILGRIMAGE St Carthage's Cathedral Monday 14th April, 7PM

During the Mass the oils of Catechumens (for Baptism), Chrism (for Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders) and Oil of the Sick (for Anointing of the Sick) are blessed by the Bishop for use throughout the Diocese in the coming year.

The Priests of the Diocese renew their commitment to priestly service during the Mass.

We look forward to attending as a parish group and thank Gavin Dykes (Principal of Mt St Patrick College) for use of the college minibus and for the offer to drive.

RESERVED SEATING: Seating for the Chrism Mass is a little different this year. The reserved seats will be in the centre aisles approximately half way down because the priests are sitting in the pews facing the altar and their Bishop, where usually they would sit on the sanctuary.

All who have put their names down please inform the parish office (6674 1284) asap if things change for you and you can no longer attend. Pick up: 5pm at St Anthony's Church Kingscliff

Easter Sunday 20th April POTTSVILLE - 7:30pm

KINGSCLIFF-9:00am

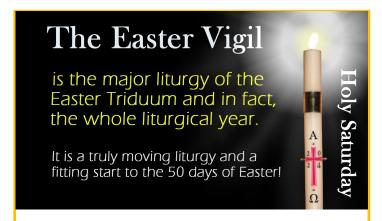

Sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year and reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil.

This three-day period is referred to as the Easter Triduum, also known as the Sacred Triduum, or Paschal Triduum.

Basically, the Sacred Triduum is one great festival recounting the last three days of Jesus' life on earth, the events of his Passion and Resurrection, when the Lamb of God laid down his life in atonement for our sins.

> Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery.

Taking place after sundown on Holy Saturday, the Church waits in darkness. The light of Christ has gone out of the world after His crucifixion and death and darkness covers the earth.

The liturgy begins outside the Church around the fire. The Paschal Candle; representing the risen Christ; is then blessed and lit for the first time.

The Priest and others process with the Paschal Candle into the dark Church which is awaiting Christ's return. It is true that this Mass is a little longer but for good reason, the readings that are proclaimed trace out our salvation history, culminating in Jesus' resurrection.

INVITE SOMEONE TO MASS THIS EASTER

Four in ten Australians say they would go to an Easter service if invited by a close friend or family member, according to the latest Australian Community Survey, conducted by the National Church Life Survey (2022)

I'm sure we can all think of someone to invite this Easter — the hope and joy of Easter is truly worth sharing.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory. Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

FIRST READING — Isaiah 50:4-7

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

- All who see me deride me.
   They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
   "He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend." R.
- Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.
- They divide my clothing among them.
   They cast lots for my robe.
   O Lord, do not leave me alone,
   my strength, make haste to help me! R.
- 4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. "You who fear the Lord, give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons." R.

SECOND READING — Philippians 2:6-11

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Praise and honour to you, Lord Jesus; Praise and honour, Lord Jesus Christ!

Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise and honour to you, Lord Jesus; Praise and honour, Lord Jesus Christ!

GOSPEL — Luke 22:14 - 23:56

HOLY LAND COLLECTION—GOOD FRIDAY

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land will take place on Good Friday. This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment, housing, parishes and orphanages. It is also used to maintain over 70 churches and shrines associated with the life of Jesus. Due to the ongoing war, the Church and people of the Holy Land are still struggling with reduced income due to fewer pilgrims and lower church attendance around the world. In 2024 Australian Catholics were once again extremely generous and we were able to send to the Holy Land nearly $1.5 million ($1.4 million [2023], $1.4 million [2022] and $1,126,098 [2021]). The reality for the Holy Land mission is that they will continue to face challenges, financial and spiritual, and so we again ask Catholics around the world again to be as generous as possible, with their financial support as well as the spiritual support. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land on Good Friday.
