Finding Peace in the Unfathomable Mystery of God

"Take from my heart all painful anxiety."

This was the prayer of Venerable Catherine McAuley, the first Sister of Mercy. It echoes the words of the Johannine Jesus, "Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not let them be afraid." It is all a matter of love. Disciples of Jesus of Nazareth know that they need not be anxious or afraid "for perfect love casts out fear" (1 John 4:18). Today's gospel makes it clear that "love" finds expression in the keeping of God's word.

In the prologue to the gospel, John has presented Jesus as the Word, the Logos who has been with God from the beginning. Jesus is the word of God in human form, the embodiment of God's communication with the cosmos. Jesus keeps God's word. Disciples are to demonstrate their love for Jesus by keeping the word that he both embodies and proclaims. In other words, they are to live as Jesus has lived and be faithful to what he has taught in God's name. They will thus become a dwelling place for the divine. The implications of this teaching are overwhelming. If we truly believed and "kept" the words of the Johannine Jesus, we might be more inclined to treat each other and "our common home" with the utmost reverence and respect.

Jesus refers once more to his imminent departure. When he is no longer physically present, God's Advocate, the Holy Spirit, will be with them. The Greek word translated as "advocate" carries a range of meanings. It literally means "one called alongside to help" whenever necessary. True disciples need not be troubled or afraid because they are never alone. The Holy Spirit, the Advocate, is always with them to defend them, to intercede for them, to comfort them, as well as to keep them focussed on all that Jesus has said to them. Earlier in this chapter of John's gospel, the Advocate is called the Spirit of Truth who remains with them and is actually in them. Only through the power of the Spirit will the disciples be empowered to "keep the word" of Jesus.

Jesus gifts his friends with peace, a peace "that the world cannot give." In John's gospel, the "world" is first and foremost the tenting place of God's Word: it is God's creation. Occasionally, as here, it refers to whatever is opposed to God's Word. The gift of peace that Jesus brings is a peace that casts out fear. It carries all the weight of the Hebrew shalom: it brings total well-being and peace of mind. True peace comes from being centred in God and gathering in all of God's creation. We long for that peace in our troubled times. As Jesus leaves them, the proper stance for the disciples is joy in the knowledge that, although he is going away, he is also "coming to them" since the Spirit will be with them. The gospel reading thus leaves us to find peace in the unfathomable mystery of God.

THE FEAST OF THE VISITATION

SATURDAY 31ST MAY

And Mary rising up in those days went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah. [Lk. 1:39]

The feast of the Visitation recalls the visit of the Blessed Virgin Mary to her cousin Elizabeth shortly after the Annunciation.

The meeting of these two women was a joyful and unique event. Both found themselves pregnant in unusual circumstances - Elizabeth in her old age after suffering from infertility, and Mary by the Holy Spirit. At their meeting, John the Baptist leaped in the womb of Elizabeth, and she blessed Mary and the Christ Child. Mary, in turn, responds with the famous Magnificat praising the Lord. JUBILEE OF FAMILIES, CHILDREN, GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

This Jubilee celebrates the importance of the family unit, recognising the unique roles played by children and grandparents; and also honours the elderly members of our communities, some of whom are without family members of their own.

From Pope Francis' Homily for the X World Meeting of Families (2022): "You are fathers, mothers and children, grandparents, uncles and aunts. You are adults and children, young and old. Each of you brings a different experience of family, but all of you have one hope and prayer: that God will bless and keep your families and all the families of the world."

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

With the end of the financial year fast approaching, the new sets of envelopes will be prepared in the coming weeks. This is a good opportunity to think about your planned giving. Perhaps you would consider a direct debit from your bank account or a credit card deduction by the parish office on a weekly or monthly basis. Forms are available at church and on the parish website if you would like to consider one of these options instead of using envelopes. Alternatively, contact the parish office.
If you would like to join the Planned Giving Program, forms are available at the back of both Churches or contact the Parish Office.

MASS COLLECTIONS

- * Retired and sick Priests

The second collection is for the administration, maintenance and growth of our parish's mission, including:

- * Liturgical needs
- * Salaries
- * Utilities
- * Resources
- * Maintenance of Church buildings and facilities
- * Parish ministry formation
